Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to you about the potential license amendment/revocation of The Venue at Sandy Cove. Whilst I do not have all the information, I have been informed that there is one person attempting to cause problems by making complaints about noise from The Venue.

I'm a magician and I've been a regular performer at The Venue for 10 years, sometimes I perform during the day after the wedding ceremony and sometimes in the evening after the meal.

I can't remember how many weddings and events I've worked at there but it's a lot, they are always well run, there is never any excessive noise and the doors close early, so I was surprised to hear about this, I've no idea why a complaint is being made now but often it's a case of someone new moving to the area and wanting to cause problems. The Venue itself is further away from the hotel and doesn't have any immediate neighbours, it could be that they know it's a wedding venue and just not like it, there could be many reasons, I'm pretty sure though that if there was a noise problem or an anti social behaviour problem then there would be multiple complaints from all the residents in the area.

I know the owners are very considerate people and wouldn't allow behaviour that would cause disruption for the neighbours.

Please don't revoke or amend their license on the basis of one miserable neighbour over exaggerating and making false claims for their own selfish benefit.

Please take this into consideration when making your decision.

Yours sincerely
