I contact you with regards to application 057749 for variation to the alcohol licence at Sandy Cove Hotel, Berrynarbour, Ilfracombe, EX34 9SR.

I heard about this through the local grapevine and the anonymous objection that was put forward.

Sandy Cove has always had the local communities in their best interest and to object to the small changes in their application is ludicrous, albeit 1/2hour more music or an outside bar.

They have brought more visitors to the area with their wedding venues and the small alteration to their licence can surely only enhance the situation. Their professionalism and forward looking business outlook can only increase this.

Noise levels have always been strictly controlled by the management and would be detrimental not to continue this way.

Regards,
John Sandell
