Dear sir,

I have accidentally let my taxi vehicle license slip due to a family illness. I have been distracted since my father in law had a stroke due to the additional responsibilities me and my partner have undergone. I am asking you politely to help me get back to work as soon as possible. If there is anything I need to do to renew this license please ring me on 01271 [redacted] I have kept my taxi in immaculate condition and I am ready to work as soon as you say I can.

Thank you, Andrew Baguley
